Sinkstation has won the 'Excellence in Homewares' award at the 13th annual London industry awards held at the Lancaster Hotel on the 3rd of October 2012.

Sinkstation was selected ahead of two excellent Joseph Joseph nominations, together with great designs from Half Moon Bay, Vacu-Vin and Salter.

The event has been embraced by the industry and recognised as the 'Oscars' for the housewares trade.

The awards shine the spotlight on both retailers for their retailing excellence as well as suppliers for their product innovation and service acumen.
